

LISTENING TO BABIES 10TH ANNIVERSARY

SANKOFA: REFLECTING BACK, PLANNING AHEAD

WHEN: Friday, February 25 | 9:00AM - 3:00PM

(Doors open and continental breakfast served from 8:00AM - 8:45AM)

VENUE: Pinellas Technical College 901 34th St. South, St. Petersburg, FL 33711

(Use 11th Ave. entrance)

Open to all professionals who serve children and families prenatally through age 5, this annual training has advocated for culturally sensitive practice in supporting the social-emotional development of young African American children. Marking its 10th anniversary year, Listening to Babies 2022 takes a considered look both at gains and at areas where promise remains to be met. The event also launches coordinated discussions to begin considering the coming 10 years, highlighting birth-to-three, 3-4, and kindergarten year experiences and supports for Black children and their families.

*The conference will be held live at Pinellas Technical College this year; participation for those immunocompromised or requesting virtual accommodations for other reasons is available and can be arranged by contacting Serina Lewis, serinalewis@usf.edu

CEUs (0.45) donated in-kind by the Early Learning Coalition! Free CE's (4) available for mental health clinicians offered by JWB (CE Provider #50-1125, Expires: 03/31/2023, for FL LCSW, LMHC, LMFT).

Please register in advance for this meeting:

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER

This year's event will be moderated by Maureen Joseph, LMSW, President of Transpire, LLC in New Orleans. It will feature presentations from Twanna Monroe, B.S., Owner/Director, Infinite Potential Learning Center, Jacqueline Lang, B.S., Owner/Director, Imagination Station, Russia Collins, LMHC, Clinical and Training Director, USF Infant-Family Center, and James McHale, Ph.D., Director, USF Family Study Center.

Sponsored by:

The School Board of Pinellas County, Florida, is neither sponsoring nor affiliated with this event. Smoking, including electronic cigarettes, is prohibited anywhere on the School Board property.

Family Study Center: stpetersburg.usf.edu/fsc For more information, please contact Serina Lewis at serinalewis@usf.edu