POLICE CRIME ALERT BULLETIN
Timely Warning Notice
July 23rd, 2019

WEAPONS INCIDENT

On Tuesday, July 23rd, at about 6 PM, a van crashed into a parked car near the intersection of 5th Avenue and 3rd Street South. A middle aged man and middle aged woman inside the van began to argue loudly. Once the woman got out of the van, the driver immediately left the area.

Officers with UPD and St. Petersburg Police arrived to find the woman standing near the intersection. She reported that the man had displayed a handgun during the argument, but that following a brief struggle the weapon was tossed to the ground outside the Beacon Apartments. She refused to cooperate further.

There were no injuries and the weapon was recovered by the St. Petersburg Police, who are investigating the incident. The van was described as a Dodge Caravan silver in color driven by a middle aged white male. The van sustained minor right front damage.
