

UNIVERSITY of
SOUTH FLORIDA
ST. PETERSBURG

Infant-Family Center

Serving young children birth to 5 years old and their families.

Strengthening families and promoting child development and well-being

We offer child and family assessment, consultation, child and family therapy and groups. In-office and in-home

"We work together with all of the child's coparents to promote young children's security and positive early life experiences"

– James McHale, Ph.D., Director

Services offered for:

Children birth to 5 years old and their families who have concerns with:

- Challenging behaviors
- Social-emotional development
- Parent-child relationship
- Coparenting cooperation and communication
- Trauma, loss and family stress
- Parental separation or divorce
- Domestic violence exposure

Contact the Infant-Family Center

727-873-4876

stpetersburg.usf.edu/fsc

Offices located at USF St. Petersburg campus
Email: cas-infantfamilycenter@usf.edu
Fax: 727-873-4817

JWB
Juvenile Welfare Board
Investing in children. Strengthening our community.