

NOVEMBER 6, 2018

CLIMATE SCIENCE 101: POTENTIAL IMPACTS OF CLIMATE CHANGE ON FLOODING

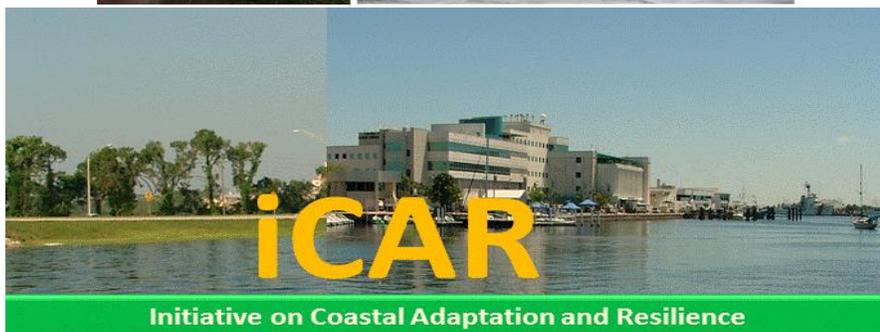

A combined look at both structural/physical flooding patterns and health implications of flooding in Pinellas County and New Flood Map of the County

Speakers/Presenters:

Kelli Hammer Levy, Director, Environmental Management Division, Pinellas County

Tamara Marshall, Florida Department of Health, Pinellas County

Representative from Pinellas County office will be present with up-to-date flood maps, and will help participants locate their homes on the maps

Presented at the Boyd Hill Nature Preserve Education Center

1101 Country Club Way S. St. Petersburg, FL 33705

7 to 8 pm

Speakers

Kelli Hammer Levy

Tamara Marshall

CONTACT

DR. REBECCA JOHNS

Director, Community Outreach and Education, iCAR (Initiative on Coastal Adaptation and Resilience)

727-873-4556

rjohns@mail.usf.edu

