

Last Chance to Register for 2020 #ONEUSF Family & Friends Weekend!

2020 #ONEUSF Family & Friends Weekend : One Week Left to Register!

From October 9-11, we invite all Bull family members and friends, wherever they are, to join us to celebrate and participate in #ONEUSF Family & Friends Weekend. We are excited that Family & Friends Weekend takes place during USF Homecoming Week!

Family & Friends Weekend is a great option for USF families and friends looking to:

- Connect with USF administrators and staff who support your student's success
- Attend family-specific sessions from the USF experts about topics such as career readiness, studying abroad, and the ongoing college transition
- Make and build connections with other USF families from across #ONEUSF
- Virtually explore #ONEUSF and participate in USF traditions such as Homecoming with their student, whether you are together or apart

Here are some of the benefits of participating in this year's Family & Friends Weekend virtual experiences:

- Experience more of what is offered than ever before. No need to pick and choose from different sessions. Pop in and out of experiences as you need to throughout the weekend so you can maximize your participation!
- Access to recorded sessions all year long. Want to spend quality time with your family or have other obligations over the weekend? No problem! We'll provide our registered families access to recorded sessions after the weekend so you can watch and engage as you are able!
- Access to virtual experiences taking place earlier in the week. This year, we are excited to share our "Early Bulls Special" Pre-Events taking place starting October 4 and going all the way through October 11 in partnership with USF Homecoming!
- Save. Save on the cost of gas, plane tickets, and Family & Friends Weekend registration packages. To reduce costs for our Bull families this year, only one registration is needed per family.
- Did we mention you can join in the fun without leaving the couch?
