

9th Grade

College Prep Checklist

Create a four-year high school plan. What do you want to accomplish?

Explore opportunities for college credit in high school such as Advanced Placement (AP), dual enrollment, or early college!

Start thinking about what you're interested in outside of the classroom. What jobs or careers interest you?

Meet with your College and Career Readiness Coordinator to discuss your post-high-school plans!

Participate in extracurricular activities such as sports teams, school clubs, drama clubs, or volunteering.

Save for college! Learn about financial aid, student loans, and scholarship opportunities. It's never too late or too early!

Explore summer opportunities. Apply for a job or internship, or volunteer in your community, to learn more about yourself!

Get familiar with PSAT-related assessments and the SAT/ACT. Ask your teacher if the PSAT is offered and how to sign up!
